The Dwarfs

Many dwarfs lived over the mountains near a small village. Those dwarfs very naughty and each night they would come in groups to steal the crops and fruit from the farms.

The villagers and the farmers were very angry with them for they had stolen so much since the last few weeks that there was not enough food for all of them.

They, therefore thought of a plan to catch them or teach them a lesson.

One evening, they covered their farms with big plastic tents and nailed sharp hooks so the dwarfs could not enter. When the dwarfs arrived, they were astonished to see the tents and made much effort to enter the tents, but they could not. The villagers, who had hidden themselves, came out from their hiding places and ran after them and chased them out of the village.

The dwarfs were so frightened that they did not look back. They ran straight out of the village and never returned.
