School Play

There was a play to be held at school. The teacher had called everyone for auditions. The play was on the famous story of "Goldilocks and the Three Bears".

Tara really wanted to have the central role of Goldilocks. She had golden curls like hers and also was as cute and chubby as she. She knew she would make it. Her classmate, Reesha was very jealous of her. She wanted that role for herself and she thought of a plan to somehow make Tara miss the auditions, so she would be selected.

Reesha was able to set a plan, but her plan failed miserably. Instead of Tara, she herself ended up in the principal's office! The principal scolded her and even called her parents to complain.

Tara did go to the auditions after all and was selected as Goldilocks. Her three friends were selected as the three bears and together they started to practice for the play.
